MESSAGE

On behalf of the Organizing team, it gives me immense pleasure and joy to welcome all distinguished delegates, invitees, faculties, students, research scholars for attending the first E- International Conference CHETPHYSIOCON 2021 with the theme titled “Functional Based Physiotherapy Intervention” to be held on 30/04/2021.

The Organizing Team CHETPHYSIOCON 2021 is blessed with positive energy and enthusiasm to host this prestigious academic activity. We have received the full support from the patrons and office bearers of Chettinad Academy of Research and Education (CARE), Chettinad Health City, Kelambakkam, Chennai.

The primary objective of this conference is to bring the updated and recent evidence based functional physiotherapy intervention in Women’s Health, Geriatric health, Pediatric Health and Hand injury cases.

I am happy and confident that the eminent resource person of concern field of physiotherapy specialty will be delivering and share their updated physiotherapy intervention to all the participants in this E- International Conference CHETPHYSIOCON 2021.

I have no doubt that the scientific presentations and deliberations during this virtual international conference will be quite useful to all the participants and will inspire them to strive the excellence in their respective disciplines.

I again take this opportunity to welcome you all in this esteemed event.

I wish this conference a grant success.
